

Consent for Dual Representation and Designated Representation in the District of Columbia
(To be attached to all listing agreements and buyer or tenant brokerage agreements for transactions in the District of Columbia.)

"Designated Representation" occurs when the Seller or Landlord has entered into a listing agreement with a licensee and the Buyer or Tenant has entered into a buyer brokerage agreement with a different licensee affiliated with the same firm. Each of the licensees, known as Designated Representatives, represents fully the interest of his/her individual clients. The Supervising Broker is a Dual Representative of both the Buyer and Seller, and must not disclose information obtained in confidence to other parties in the transaction.

- If the Seller or Landlord does not consent to Designated Representation, the property may not be shown by any licensees affiliated with the brokerage firm that have entered into a representation agreement with a prospective Buyer or Tenant.
- If the Buyer or Tenant does not consent to Designated Agency, the Buyer or Tenant may not be shown any properties listed by other licensees affiliated with the brokerage firm.
Prior to entering into a contract in which the buyer and seller are represented by Designated Representatives, the relationship of both Designated Agents must be disclosed/confirmed in writing.

"Dual Representation" occurs when Seller or Landlord has entered into a listing agreement with a licensee and the Buyer or Tenant has entered into a buyer brokerage agreement with the same licensee. When the parties agree to dual representation, the ability of the licensee and the brokerage firm to represent either party fully and exclusively is limited. The confidentiality of all clients shall be maintained.

- If the Seller or Landlord does not consent to Dual Representation, the property may not be shown by the licensee to any prospective Buyers or Tenants that have entered into a buyer brokerage agreement with the licensee.
- If the Buyer or Tenant does not consent to Dual Agency, the licensee may not show any properties listed by the licensee.
- Prior to entering into a contract in which the buyer and seller are represented by Dual Agency, this relationship must be disclosed/confirmed in writing.

SELLER'S DISCLOSURE STATEMENT
Instructions to the Seller for Seller's Disclosure Statement

These Instructions are to assist the Seller in completing the required Seller's Disclosure Statement in order to comply with the District of Columbia Residential Real Property Seller Disclosure Act.

1. Who must complete the Seller's Disclosure Statement? The Seller, not the broker and not the management company, condominium association, cooperative association or homeowners association.

2. In what types of transactions must the Seller provide the Seller's Disclosure Statement to the Purchaser? The Act applies to the following types of transfers or sales of District of Columbia real estate:

- (a) where the property consists of one to four residential dwelling units, and,
- (b) the transactions a sale, exchange, installment land contract, lease with an option to purchase, or any other option to purchase, and,
- (c) the purchaser expresses, in writing, an interest to reside in the property to be transferred.

However, the Act does not apply to:

- (a) court ordered transfers;
- (b) transfers to a mortgagee by a mortgagor in default;
- (c) transfers by sale under a power of sale in a deed of trust or mortgage or any foreclosure sale under a decree of foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosures;
- (d) transfers by a non-occupant fiduciary administering a decedent's estate, guardianship, conservatorship or trust;
- (e) transfers between co-tenants;
- (f) transfers made to the transferor's spouse, parent, grandparent, child, grandchild or sibling (or any combinations of the foregoing);
- (g) transfer between spouses under a divorce judgment incidental to such a judgment;
- (h) transfers or exchanges to or from any governmental entity; and
- (i) transfers made by a person of newly constructed residential property that has not been inhabited.

3. When does the Seller's Disclosure Statement have to be provided to the Purchaser? In a sale, before or at the time the prospective transferee executes a purchase agreement with the transferor. In an installment sales contract (where a binding purchase contract has not been executed), or in the case of a lease with no option to purchase, before or at the time the prospective transferee executes the installment sales contract or lease with the transferor.

4. What information must the Seller disclose? Answer ALL questions on the Seller's Disclosure Statement. If some items do not apply to your property, check "N/A" (not applicable). If you do not know the facts, check "UNKNOWN". Report actually known conditions referred to in the questions. Each disclosure must be made in "good faith" (honestly in fact in the making of the disclosure). Attach additional pages with your signature if additional space is required.

The Seller of a condominium unit, cooperative unit, or a lot in a homeowners association, is to provide information only as to the Seller's unit or lot, and not as to any common elements, common areas or other areas outside of the unit or lot.

This is the required Seller's Disclosure Statement approved by the Washington, DC Board of Real Estate.

SELLER'S DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Instructions to the Seller for Seller's Disclosure Statement

- 5. What is the remedy if the Seller does not provide the Seller's Disclosure Statement to the Transferee? If the Seller's Disclosure Statement is delivered after the purchaser executes the purchase agreement, installment sales contract or lease with an option to purchase, the purchaser may terminate the transaction by written notice to the seller not more than five (5) calendar days after receipt of the Seller's Disclosure Statement by the purchaser, and the deposit must be returned to the purchaser. The right to terminate is waived if not exercised before the earliest of:
- (a) the making of an application for a mortgage loan (if the lender discloses that the right to rescind terminates on submission of the application); or
 - (b) settlement or date of occupancy in the case of a sale; or
 - (c) occupancy in the case of a lease with an option to purchase.
- 6. If the Seller finds out different information after providing the Seller's Disclosure Statement to the Purchaser, how does this impact a ratified contract? If information becomes inaccurate after delivery of the disclosure form, the inaccuracy shall not be grounds for terminating the transaction.
- 7. How must a Seller deliver the Seller's Disclosure Statement to the Transferee? The Seller's Disclosure Statement must be delivered by personal delivery, facsimile delivery, or by registered mail to the transferee. Execution by the transferor of a facsimile is considered execution of the original.

This is the required Seller's Disclosure Statement approved by the Washington, DC Board of Real Estate.

- B. If applicable, a statement, which need not be in recordable form, certifying to the Board's waiver of, or failure or refusal to exercise, any rights of first refusal or other restraints on free alienability of the Unit which may be contained in the Condominium instruments;
 - C. A statement of any capital expenditures anticipated by the unit owners' association within the current or succeeding 2 fiscal years;
 - D. A statement of the status and amount of any reserves for capital expenditures, contingencies; and improvements, and any portion of such reserves earmarked for any specified project by the Condominium Board;
 - E. A copy of the statement of financial condition for the unit owners' association for the most recent fiscal year for which such statement is available, and the current operating budget, if any;
 - F. A statement setting forth what insurance coverage is provided for all unit owners by the unit owners association and a statement whether such coverage includes public liability, loss or damage, or fire and extended coverage insurance with respect to the Unit and its contents;
 - G. A statement that any improvements or alterations made to the Unit; or the limited common elements assigned thereto by the Seller are not in violation of the condominium instruments;
 - H. A statement of the remaining term of any leasehold estate affecting the Condominium or the Unit and the provisions governing any extension or renewal thereof; and
 - I. The date of issuance of the certificate.
5. CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION APPROVAL: If this sale is subject to approval by or right of refusal of the Council Of Unit Owners or Board Of Directors of the Condominium, in the event such approval is denied or such right of first refusal is exercised by such Council or Board, this Contract shall be null and void and the Buyer's deposit shall be refunded without delay or deduction therefrom.
6. ASSUMPTION OF CONDOMINIUM OBLIGATIONS: Buyer hereby agrees to assume each and every obligation of, to be bound by and to comply with the covenants and conditions contained in the Condominium instruments including the Condominium Bylaws, and with the Rules and Regulations of the Condominium, from and after the date of settlement hereunder.
7. RIGHT TO CANCEL: Buyer shall have the right for a period of three (3) business days following Buyer's receipt of the condominium documents and statements referred to in Paragraph 4 to cancel this Contract by giving Notice thereof to Seller. In the event that such condominium documents and statements are delivered to Buyer on or prior to the ratification of this Contract by Buyer, such three (3) business day period shall commence upon ratification of this Contract. If the condominium documents and statements are not delivered to Buyer within the 10 business day time period referred to in Paragraph 4, Buyer shall have the option to cancel this Contract by giving Notice thereof to Seller prior to receipt by Buyer of such condominium documents and statements. Pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph, in no event may the Buyer have the right to cancel this Contract after Settlement.
